

Tintri Receives Nasdaq Delisting Determination Letter

July 9, 2018

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jul. 9, 2018-- Tintri, Inc. (NASDAQ:TNTR) today announced that the company received a Staff Delisting Determination Letter from Nasdaq setting forth a determination to delist the company's securities as a result of the company's failure to satisfy the requirements of Nasdaq Listing Rule 5250(c)(1) due to its failure to file a Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended April 30, 2018. Unless the company requests an appeal of the delisting determination, trading of the company's common stock will be suspended at the opening of business on July 12, 2018, and Nasdaq will file a Form 25-NSE with the Securities and Exchange Commission, which will remove the company's securities from listing and registration on Nasdaq. The Company has not determined at this time whether it will file an appeal of the delisting determination.

This announcement is made in compliance with Nasdaq Listing Rule 5810(b) which requires prompt disclosure of receipt of a Staff Delisting Determination.

About Tintri

Tintri (NASDAQ: TNTR) offers an enterprise cloud infrastructure built on a public-cloud like web services architecture and RESTful APIs. Organizations use Tintri all-flash storage with scale-out and automation as a foundation for their own clouds—to build agile development environments for cloud native applications and to run mission-critical enterprise applications. Tintri enables users to guarantee the performance of their applications, automate common IT tasks to reduce operating expenses, troubleshoot across their infrastructure, and predict an organization's needs to scale—the underpinnings of a modern data center. That's why leading cloud service providers and enterprises, including Comcast, Chevron, NASA, Toyota, United Healthcare and 20 percent of the Fortune 100, trust Tintri with enterprise cloud.
